IRS FORM 990 DISCLOSURE

In the annual filing of the IRS Form 990, the Association must disclose whether any officers, directors, senior staff, or companies/persons providing significant professional services are related to each other through family or business relationships.

The IRS defines a family relationship to include an individual's spouse, ancestors, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, siblings (whether by whole or half blood), and the spouses of children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and siblings.

The IRS defines a business relationship to include employment and contractual relationships, and common ownership of a business where any officers, directors, or senior staff individually or together, possesses more than a 35% ownership interest in common. Ownership is voting power in a corporation, profits interest in a partnership, or beneficial interest in a trust.

Provide a summary of any relationships that meet the disclosure requirements:
