

Insulin Vials

Regardless of its form, insulin is a life saving medication for those with diabetes.

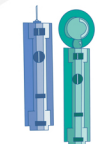

New, unopened, refrigerator maintained insulin of any type or brand with a minimum of three (3) months to use-by-date.

Glucose Strips

So tiny and disposable, yet so valuable for the person with diabetes; this, for the purpose of improving one's care and disease management.

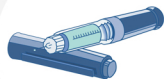

Unused glucose test strips with a minimum of sixty (60) days to use-by date.

Lancets

Lancets are a necessary component for determining a person's blood glucose level.

We are only permitted to work with factory sealed lancets. type or brand of lancet with a minimum of seven (7) months to use-by date.

Insulin Pens

Insulin pens offer a number of advantages over standard insulin.

New, unopened pre-filled insulin pens of any type or brand with a minimum of three (3) months to use-by-date.

KetoStix

Ketostix provide a fast, convenient way of testing urine for the presence and concentration of Ketones.

New, unopened with a minimum of three (3) months left until use-by date.

Syringes

When syringes are difficult to obtain one can be tempted to use them until their dullness makes injections quite uncomfortable.

We accept .3, .5 and 1 mL insulin syringes in new unopened sealed packages. Syringes also contain expiration dates, please check the dates as we are unable to accept expired or open (unsealed) packages. There is a minimum of seven (7) months to use-by date. (If no date is posted, the sterility of syringes lasts five years from the date of manufacturing)

Insulin Cartridges

Insulin filled cartridges can be used in a reusable insulin delivery device.

New, unopened, refrigerator maintained insulin of any type or brand with a minimum of three (3) months to use-by-date.

Glucagon

An injectable form of glucagon is vital first aid in cases of severe hypoglycemia.

New, unopened glucagon with a minimum of three (3) months to use-by

Pen Needles

Pen needles are used in conjunction with insulin pens to administer insulin.

Any brand of pen needle which can be utilized with insulin pens which has a minimum of seven (7) months prior to the expiration date.

Continuous Glucose Monitor (CGM) & FreeStyle Libre Supplies

We accept non-expired, Dexcom, FreeStyle Libre, and Omnipod products.